Miss Lisa Curto becomes bride of Gerald Gallagher

Wedding vows were exchanged on October 1 in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church between Lisa Curto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curto, 39 Terrace St. and Gerald Gallagher, son of Mrs. Catherine Gonnier, 15 Sand St. and the late James Gallagher. Father Joseph Sica officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony before an altar decorated with lilies and carnations. Satin ribbon, baby's breath and fern marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white chiffon gown with wedding band neckline, molded bodice and extended and ruffled leg-mutton sleeves. The entire gown was accented with French lace on lace, crystals and pearls accenting the bodice. Her hair was styled in a traditional cascade of ruffled ribbons and roses accented with baby's breath and satin ribbons.

Mrs. Dina Nevins, Carbondale, was mother of the bride, and Mr. Joseph Curto, Carbondale, was best man. The groom, wearing a tuxedo, carried a bouquet of lilies and a lace fan with lilies, miniature carnations and sweetheart roses, baby's breath and satin ribbons. She wore matching flowers in her hair.

Attired in a gown similar to the bride's, Lisa Curto, Carbondale, was bridesmaid. She carried a bouquet of lilies and a lace fan with lilies, miniature carnations and sweetheart roses, baby's breath and satin ribbons. She wore matching flowers in her hair.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple is residing in Carbondale.

Mrs. Gerald Gallagher (Arlene Phoro) for his brother, (Arlene Phoro) were James Gagliotti, Peter Kohut, Thomas Shearer, and Mark Shearer, all of Carbondale. Caroline Newcomb, Carbondale, niece of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. James Gallagher, Carbondale, was best man.

Home, school group organizes

The Home School Guild of St. Rose Elementary School recently elected officers for the 1984 school year.

Officers are: Elaine Dux, president; Sister Regina Burns, IHM, vice president; Grace Newcomb, treasurer; Mary Ruggiero, home room mothers committee; Tim Snyder, sports committee; Carol Novak, social committee.

The group is currently conducting their membership drive.

Carbondale Area School Board reorganizes

The Carbondale Area School Board met on Monday evening, December 5, to conduct general business and to swear in new members. District collector Francis Wormuth administered the oath of office to new board members Leo Derwinski, Patrick Loftus, Margaret Calzo, and Bernadette Lepre, and to John Evancho, a request was made to grant tax relief for the building which is used primarily as an up-valley recreation center, a non-profit operation and by the Salem Forest Fire Crew, Robert Ashby.

The first official act of the new board was to elect Joe Falvo president and Robert Ford vice president.

President Falvo told the audience that his policy will be to solicit input from the audience on each motion put before the board by asking "On the question" prior to taking a vote.

The only items which warranted further consideration were requests by the Carbondale Historical Society that the school district donate to them the former Washington Elementary School and the request by Robert Evancho that his property, the former Crane Armory, be granted tax exempt status.

The district had previously indicated that it would be willing to donate the Washington School building to the Historical Society.

It was decided that the board would not grant tax relief for the building which is used primarily as an up-valley recreation center, a non-profit operation and by the Salem Forest Fire Crew, Robert Ashby.

The board postponed final action on Evancho's request pending further legal opinions.
